Biography

John J. Graham was a student at the University of California, Berkeley, graduating in 1970. The last two years of his student career he contributed photos to the Blue and Gold, and in the last year he was also the sports editor for the 1970 Blue and Gold.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of many photos of athletic events, Graham's primary interest. There are also photographs and slides of campus protests in the fall of 1969 and spring of 1970. The majority of the slides are of campus buildings and campus views, but there are some of each topic in each format.

Scope and Content Note

Arrangement

Arranged chronologically.

The earliest contact sheets have only the processing date, not the actual date of the photograph. Some sheets have images for which the negatives were never received; these have usually been lined out by Graham. The existence of a mounted enlargement in Series 3 has been indicated. The negatives are not for public use and housed separately.
