Scope and Content

The maps in this collection pertain to the University campus, to other lands owned by Jane and Leland Stanford or the University, and to adjacent communities.

Before Stanford

Physical Description: 13 items

Scope and Content Note

These are maps of the campus area as it was before or when Leland and Jane Stanford purchased it. A few maps of adjacent communities are also included.

Stock Farm and Other Land

Physical Description: 29 items

Scope and Content Note

These maps are of the Palo Alto Stock Farm, the land in Santa Clara County that Leland and Jane Stanford purchased as a country home and trotting horse farm which later became the campus of Stanford University, and other land owned by the Stanfords throughout California, both before and after the establishment of the University.

Proposed Campus up to 1900

Physical Description: 51 items

Scope and Content Note

These maps include plans by F. L. Olmsted & Company, topographical maps, road profiles and plans, and some utility plans.

Student Guide Maps

Physical Description: 50 items (approx.)

Scope and Content Note

These are maps of the campus, often with the adjacent communities of Mayfield and Palo Alto, that were included in the Stanford University Register, Directory or other official publications.

Commercial Guide Maps

Physical Description: 11 items

Scope and Content Note

Included in this category are maps drawn by Della Taylor, Edward M. Farmer, and Arthur Lites.

Miscellaneous (Mostly Non-Campus)

Physical Description: 38 items

Scope and Content Note

Most of these maps pertain to communities adjacent to the campus, including Mayfield, Woodside, Palo Alto, and Menlo Park. Other subjects include San Francisquito Creek, Searsville Lake, Greystone Quarry, and plots owned by individuals.

Campus Miscellany

Physical Description: 68 items

Scope and Content Note

Included among these maps are planting schemes, location of the Peninsular Railroad line on campus, plans for Junipero Serra Boulevard, and housing subdivisions.

Official Campus Maps

Physical Description: 39 items

Scope and Content Note

These maps include the 1908 survey of University lands in Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties requested by the Board of Trustees and various enlargements of sections of that map; similar surveys done in the 1950s; and various maps produced by the Planning Office.

Map Books

Physical Description: 3 volumes

Scope and Content Note

There are three map books: a small volume of assorted lands owned by the Stanfords, c. 1869-1903; a block book for the campus, 1901-1903; and insurance maps for the campus, 1917.

Properties of LSJU Map Volume

Physical Description: 102 items

Scope and Content Note

The maps in this category have been removed from the bound volume in which they were formerly kept and are now interfiled with the rest of the maps in this collection. They include maps of the campus as well as other University-owned lands. Campus subjects include streets, utilities (including water), trolley lines, athletic fields, land leased to Chinese workers, and Charles Lathrop's residence. Non-campus subjects include ranch lands owned in Tehama and Butte Counties, Vina Ranch, land owned in Lassen County, Oakland Harbor, Calistoga, and San Francisco.
