John Hammond, A sweete poesie [sic] of variety of flowers that fade not..., MSS 0062. Mandeville Special Collections Library, UCSD.

ABSTRACT

Bound manuscript, commonplace book, containing poetry and prose, apparently written by John Hammond for his grandson, John Hammond. Much of the text relates to religious subjects. On verso of front cover: bookplate of Don Cameron Allen. Also includes a slip of paper naming the author as "W. Hammond" and dating the volume as "early 17th century."
