
Descriptive Summary

Title: Aida Hurtado Latino Eligibility Survey Papers,

Date (inclusive): 1990 - 1996

Collection number: 150

Creator: Dr. Aida Hurtado

Extent: 5 linear feet

Repository: University of California, Los Angeles. Library. Chicano Studies Research Center, UCLA
Los Angeles, California 90095-1490

Abstract: The Latino Eligibility Study, began in 1992 and was created to develop a clear understanding of the issues associated with the rate of Latino enrollment in higher education. It examined and assessed existing research and programs within and outside the University of California system and it expanded its understanding of the issues through acquisition of new data. The Latino Eligibility Study recommended policies, programs and other actions designed to improve future eligibility for Latinos in higher education.

This collection of papers and documents was assembled by Dr. Aida Hurtado of the University of California Santa Barbara for a Latino Eligibility Survey monograph.

Researchers who would like to indicate errors of fact or omissions in this finding aid can contact the research center at www.chicano.ucla.edu
