Biography

Colman Andrews grew up in Southern California and graduated from UCLA with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Philosophy in 1969. He wrote Catalan cuisine : Europe's last great culinary secret (1988), Everything on the table : plain talk about food and wine (1992), and Flavors of the Riviera (1996); he co-authored and edited Saveur cooks authentic American (1998), Saveur cooks authentic French (1999), and Saveur cooks authentic Italian (2001); he contributed to the books, Malaparte : a house like me (1999), and Setting the American table : essays for the new culture of food and wine (2001); as well as over 2500 freelance articles (1966-2004) on food, wine, and the arts. His articles have appeared in Bon Appetit, the Chicago Sun-Times, Christian science monitor, Creem, Food & wine, the Hollywood reporter, Los Angeles magazine, the Los Angeles press, the Los Angeles Times, the Mail on Sunday (UK), Metropolitan home, Musica jazz (Italy), Phonograph record magazine, the Radio times (UK), Travel leisure, and the Sunday Telegraph magazine (UK). Andrews has won numerous awards for his writing and was one of the first 50 recipients named in Who's Who of Cooking in America (1985).

Scope and Content

The bulk of the collection consists of typescripts of articles, reviews, short stories and screenplays written by Colman Andrews. Included are magazine and newspaper clippings of articles written for the Los Angeles Times, as well as many music, food and travel articles written during the 1970s and 1980s. There are biographies of jazz and rock musicians from the 1960s and 1970s and reviews of live performances. The collection contains the setting copies and drafts for Catalan cuisine (1988-1989), Listener's guide to jazz (1980), Everything on the table (1991-1992), Appetites and attitudes (no date), and Flavors of the Riviera (1996) as well as a paperback copy of Catalan cuisine (1988) and Cocina Catalan (1989) by Colman Andrews. Also included are general correspondence, correspondence between Andrews and various editors, and related business correspondence. There is a small amount of material of his writings as a child, material from his college days,
