Acquisition Information

The manuscript of the Concordance was transferred from the University Archives to the Manuscripts Division in March 1966; the remainder of the collection was a gift of Dr. Helen Pillans, March 1977.

Scope and Content

This small collection of papers of James Turney Allen, Professor of Greek at the University of California, Berkeley relates for the most part to his life-long work, A Concordance to Euripides, which was published posthumously by the University of California Press in 1954. It includes correspondence as well as the holograph manuscript of the work; and also manuscripts of a few of his articles; notes; lesson plans; and notes on the Agamemnon of Aeschylus from a class taught by Professor Isaac Flagg in Berkeley in 1896.

Box 1 Letters written by Allen, 1938-1947, holograph and typescript, concerned with obtaining grant assistance and publishing his Concordance. (1 folder)

Letters written to Allen, mainly from colleagues, relating to information or suggestions for the proposed Concordance. Arranged alphabetically by name of person or organization. A list of correspondents follows the Key.
